

BOY DROWNS AT PLAY IN RIVER

CHARLES WILSON, YOUNG SON OF MR. AND MRS. ROBERT
WILSON, LOSTS LIFE

BROTHER IN DANGER

OLDER YOUTH ALMOST LOSES HIS OWN LIFE SEEKING TO EFFECT RESCUE

While riding a plank floating in the Los Angeles river, near the city limits of Glendale, Charles Wilson, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, fell off and was drowned yesterday afternoon. The body was recovered later.

With several playmates, the boy was astride a plank in a pool of water made rather deep by recent dredging work. He fell from the board and, in attempting a rescue, an older brother almost lost his own life, being saved by a man who witnessed the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson reside on Parkdale avenue, which is just outside the city limits of Glendale. The news of the boy's drowning was carried to the neighbors and immediately a search for the body was begun.

Fifty Search for Body

More than fifty persons participated in the search. The police and fire departments of Glendale were notified. Officer Trautwein directed the search on behalf of the police department and the fire department provided a pulmotor to be used when the body was recovered.

It was about an hour before the body was found and, despite the efforts of physicians, the use of the pulmotor and other means, it proved impossible to revive the boy.

The body was removed to the Scovern undertaking establishment in this city.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Little Church of the Flowers, with the Scovern undertaking company in charge of the interment.

CITY CHARTER

BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS WILL HOLD ANOTHER MEETING AT CITY HALL TUESDAY

The board of freeholders, chosen to draft a charter for the city of Glendale, will hold a meeting at the city hall tomorrow night, at 7:30 o'clock, presided over by Chairman Bert Woodard. The meeting is open to the public and citizens interested in the proposed charter are invited by the freeholders to attend.

It is expected that the proposed duties of the city manager under the charter system will be discussed at the session tomorrow night. The matter of franchises and taxation may also be discussed.

The board has sent for a copy of the charter adopted by the city of Sacramento last week and, it is expected, this copy will be in the hands of the board tomorrow night.

ELKS BALLOT

IMPORTANT MEETING TO BE HELD TONIGHT BY LODGE;
PLAN CHARITY BALL

In view of the fact that balloting for candidates is scheduled to take place, the request is made that as many members as possible attend tonight's session of Glendale's lodge of Elks.

"I am specially requesting that there be a large attendance tonight, when we ballot on candidates," said John H. Farnet, the exalted ruler of the local lodge.

On Saturday, December 11, the local lodge will hold a charity ball.

LEAGUE REFUSES TO CONCILIATE DELEGATES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
GENEVA, Dec. 6.—The League of Nations assembly today refused to conciliate the Argentine delegation which withdrew Saturday. The assembly voted unanimously to refer proposed amendments to the covenant to a commission which will report to the 1921 assembly. The amendments included those which Argentina demanded should be acted upon immediately, withdrawal of the delegation being the alternative.

ORDERS DISSOLUTION OF COAL COMBINE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The supreme court today ordered dissolution of the Lehigh Valley Railway coal combine on the grounds that it has existed in violation of the anti-trust laws. The decision was a complete victory for the federal government, the court holding that the combination has resulted in a restraint of interstate commerce and violation of the commodities clause of the anti-trust statutes. The case was one of the famous anthracite coal suits.

LOCAL LODGE OF ELKS PAYS FITTING TRIBUTE TO DEPARTED BROTHERS

Impressive Program Sunday Night; Eloquent Talk
Made by H. W. Brown of Santa Monica Lodge

Down the ages rings the cry of Job: "Remember me, remember me, at least ye, my friends." Ever the human heart has craved to be remembered by those it loved and has rebelled against sinking into utter oblivion. Even to the saintly Fray Junipero Serra the thought of being entirely forgotten by those on earth was repellent; he yearned "to be remembered in the beautiful land of California."

The human heart grows more and more understanding and gentle as the ages move on. In more than seven hundred thousand hearts yesterday the memory of departed Brother Elks was held in tender veneration, all over the United States, in the annual memorial services of the order.

Unusually beautiful and impressive was the memorial service held by Glendale Lodge, No. 1289, in the lodge room of their beautiful clubhouse last evening.

The large hall was completely filled with Elks and their families and friends when Exalted Ruler John Farnet opened the meeting at eight o'clock.

Below the tablet bearing the names of departed brothers hung a large, magnificent flag, its stripes of red and white composed of fragrant carnations, its field of blue, of violets. Each station was elaborately and tastefully decorated in carnations, chrysanthemums, smilax and ferns; the station of the Exalted Ruler and the entire platform across the front of the room were beautiful with tall palms and other greenery mingled with great masses of white and purple chrysanthemums. Upon the altar's lovely silken flag reposed the bible and the Elks' emblem, the antlers, entwined with smilax and fragrant blossoms.

The drill team acted as ushers, and presented a pale pink carnation to each lady who entered and a white one to each gentleman.

Impressive Program
A musical selection, "March aux Flambeaux," by the Glendale Elks' orchestra, preluded the ceremony, which was opened by Exalted Ruler John H. Farnet, who defined its purpose as the twining of the flower of hope with the tender blossoms of love and memory. Esquire Earl Patterson explained the symbols of the altar and its decorations; the flag of our country, its colors symbolical of friendship, purity and truth, out of which elements grows the cardinal virtue of the order, charity; the bible, the foundation of law; the antlers, widespread as the influence of the love and charity that is inspired in the hearts of men by the principles of the order.

Chaplain James F. McBryde invoked the divine blessing on the meeting, asking that all might be benefited by participation in the ceremonies, and inspired by them to a new fidelity to the principles of the order.

The Gamut club quartette, of Los Angeles, sang Dudley Buck's "Sing Alleluia Forth" in the finished, musicianly manner for which they are noted, after which the orchestra played Gounod's beautiful "Ave des Garde."

Solemn and impressive was the moment when Exalted Ruler Farnet, prefacing the order for the roll call with the statement of his firm conviction that the voices of our loved ones, still here forever, may be heard again in the choir invisible and that with the eyes of faith we may see those we have loved and lost awhile, requested Secretary Charles J. Letts to call the names of the departed Brother Elks of Glendale lodge. The lights were extinguished in the lodge room for a moment, and then, as the secretary called the names of Brothers Lester L. Meyer, C. L. Hall, J. H. Sargent and W. Whitworth, who had given their lives for their country in the late war, one by one in the blue field of the beautiful flower-banner below the tablet bearing the names of the dead, there appeared bright stars of light. As he called the names of other departed brothers the tablet above the flag was illuminated.

Mrs. Nana Custer's beautiful voice was strikingly touching in Mascheroni's sad yet triumphantly hopeful "For All Eternity." Her accompaniment was played by Mrs. A. H. Dibern.

Also full of resignation and hope was the unforgettable "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" by the Gamut Club quartette, whose beautiful voices blended in perfect harmony in this lovely hymn, the words of which are the outpouring of the heart of one of America's noblest women.

Esteemed Leading Knight Alfred E. Priest placed upon the altar forget-me-nots, symbolic of loving memory in which departed brothers are held; Esteemed Loyal Knight Arthur H. Dibern brought amaranth, the symbol of immortality; Esteemed Lecturing Knight James A. Apfel came with clinging ivy, the symbol of brotherly love.

In keeping with the spirit of faith and hope that characterized the entire ceremony was the beautiful solo of L. M. Tibbetts, of the Gamut Club quartette, "Forever With the Lord," by Gounod.

Very Eloquent Discourse
Probably in no pulpit throughout the length and breadth of the land was there a more eloquent discourse delivered yesterday than that of H. W. Brown, Past Deputy District Grand Exalted Ruler, of Santa Monica, who was chosen to give the oration at Glendale Elks' memorial service last evening.

Mr. Brown is blessed with every quality that goes to make an orator. He has a voice of pleasing quality and expressive cadences, his personality is magnetic, he is a man of broad reading and deep sympathy, he has a wonderful vocabulary, and uses words with propriety and precision, and best of all, he has something to say and he knows how to say it. Fortunate, indeed, were those who were privileged to hear his masterly oration last evening.

Spirit of Faith and Hope
Although it was filled with classical allusions, Mr. Brown's discourse was entirely free from pedantry, for a subtle element of his art is the power to make allusions in such a way that they are understood perfectly even by one who has forgotten all he ever knew of the classics.

The spirit of faith and hope and love permeated Mr. Brown's discourse. He told how Alexander the Great, at a banquet celebrating a noted victory, asked if all heroes of the great fight were present; when told that all were there but those who fell on the field of honor the great king of the Macedonians exclaimed, "Then all are here; for the glorious dead live on forever." So, said the

BIG MEASURES UP FOR ACTION

IMPORTANT BUSINESS TO BE GIVEN CONSIDERATION BY CONGRESS IN SESSION

WORK NOW OUTLINED

TREATY WITH JAPAN, CHANGE
IN TAX METHODS, VOLSTEAD
LAW, TO BE DISCUSSED

(Special Service to Evening News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.—President Wilson will address the congress "in writing," according to members of the congressional notification committee which called at the White House today with formal word that congress had met.

Members of the committee took this to mean that the president will not attempt to appear before congress in person with his message tomorrow.

(Special Service to Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The final session of the sixty-sixth congress began at noon today. When it ends on March 3 next, many of the members who today greeted each other will return to private life along with Woodrow Wilson.

This short session has been looked on in prospect as a rather routine session, devoted largely to passage of the fourteen appropriation bills. But indications are that it will be crowded with other important business. Not only will the mass of routine be tremendous, but there is to be considerable foundation-laying for the sixty-seventh congress, when the Republicans, in complete control of both legislative and executive branches of the government, purpose an ambitious program.

When congress assembled, interest centered in President Wilson's final message, which probably will be read tomorrow. Both houses, but particularly the senate, wanted to hear whether Wilson, defeated at the "solemn referendum" on the league of nations covenant at last month's election, would indicate his intentions with regard to the treaty. It will make slight difference what President Wilson suggests, however, as Republican plans for handling the treaty are already mapped out. The extra session next March or April is to handle that, unless the unexpected should happen, and Wilson should send the treaty back now, with an acceptance of senate reservations.

Much Work for Session
Here is some of the work which this session will be called on to dispose of:

Fourteen appropriation bills. Reapportionment of representation in the house of representatives, based on the 1920 census. A national budget bill. A bill to amend the Volstead prohibition enforcement law to make

HOLD REUNION

MRS. FRANK CLARK WELCOMES SISTER TO GLENDALE FOR VISIT THIS WINTER

Mrs. Frank Clark, 606 North Orange street, is rejoicing over the arrival of her sister, Mrs. Parker Whitby, and sons, Teddy and Bud. They arrived Sunday evening from Pittsburgh, Pa., and report a wonderful trip all the way.

Mrs. Clark hopes to have her sister here for the winter and is anticipating making the trip back east with them when they return in the spring. The sisters had not seen each other for about four years and, consequently, held a real reunion. Mrs. Whitby is delighted with Glendale and the southland and is looking forward to spending the entire winter here.

CHICAGO TRIP

GEORGE G. SMITH AND WIFE GOING EAST; LATTER TO VISIT IN DENVER

George G. Smith of 414 East Harvard street, who is one of Marshall Fields & Co.'s representatives in Los Angeles, leaves Tuesday on his semi-annual trip to Chicago. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Smith as far as Denver. After Mr. Smith's return from Chicago, they expect to spend the Christmas holidays with their parents in Denver, their former home.

HARDING MAKES ADDRESS TO U. S. SENATE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—President-elect Harding today addressed the senate as a member of that body, setting a new precedent in American history. He told his colleagues in a brief, informal talk that while he would always be mindful of the senate's place and responsibility in the government, he would always remember and expect the senate to remember that he was president.

Harding requested cooperation, declaring it was not necessary for either the congress or the executive to surrender to the other. He also urged the senate to make the remaining three months of the Wilson administration a "fruitful time," instead of so much waste.

His speech was made after Senator Lodge, republican leader, asked the chair to recognize the "Senator from Ohio." Harding appeared nervous as he began to speak and again at the close. When he had finished the entire senate arose and applauded.

MOB ACTION AT SANTA ROSA HAS HALTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SANTA ROSA, Dec. 6.—Santa Rosa was still tense with excitement today as a result of yesterday's killing of three peace officers, Sheriff Petray of Sonoma county, and Detectives Jackson and Dorman of San Francisco, yet indications were that cool thought would prevail and there would be no repetition of last night's mob action. Announcement by the sheriff's office today that Charles Boyd of Seattle had made a complete confession that he alone had done the shooting cleared the case considerably, yet for a time it was feared that it might have the effect of again arousing a mob.

SETS FIGURE FOR GOVERNMENT EXPENSES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Four billion, sixty-eight million, four hundred forty-nine thousand, eight hundred fifty-seven dollars for the regular expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, were asked of congress today by Secretary of the Treasury Houston, in submitting the annual estimates of the executive departments. The amount requested exceeds the appropriation for the current fiscal year by $855,407,372, although it is approximately $400,000,000 less than the annual estimates submitted by the secretary in 1919.

LAST TAX DAY

COLLECTOR'S OFFICE WILL BE KEPT OPEN UNTIL 6 O'CLOCK
TO RECEIVE PAYMENTS

Long lines of taxpayers appear before the county tax collection department in Los Angeles today, for this is the last day on which to pay taxes, unless one is to be listed as a delinquent.

Many Glendale taxpayers sent their checks by mail, as did many others throughout the county. As a result, the office of W. O. Welch, county tax collector, is swamped. Letters received several days ago have not yet been opened. It is estimated that it will be several weeks before the letters can be opened, the proper entries made and the receipts returned to taxpayers.

The tax collector's office will be open until 6 o'clock tonight and an extra force will be there to handle the last hour rush. After today, penalties and fines will be added against the delinquents.

Hurt by Falling Tree

H. L. Dillon of 112 East Acacia avenue was quite seriously injured Saturday afternoon while at work on the Broadway school grounds. He was chopping down a large pepper tree in front of the school and when he attempted to get out of the hole as the tree was falling, he was caught by it. An ambulance was called and he was taken to his home. He suffered an injury to the right eye. Mr. Dillon was removed to the Glendale Sanitarium yesterday morning, where he is getting along as well as could be expected.

Burglar in Home

A report was received at police headquarters from the Japanese gardener who takes care of the premises at 215 West Garfield avenue that someone had entered the house Friday evening. Upon investigation it was found that the window in the kitchen had been broken so that a person could reach in and turn the key in the door. A desk had been opened and papers were strewn about. In one of the bedrooms a trunk had been opened and its contents scattered about the room.

RADIUM KILLS SCIENTIST

PARIS—Charles Irroit, a French scientist, died here last night as the result of poisoning received through experimenting with radium. The scientist lost the use of both arms and both legs before death finally stopped his experimental endeavors.

SOUTH DAKOTA

WHOLE CAR LOAD OF PEOPLE FROM ABERDEEN COME TO SOUTHLAND TO LIVE

Former residents of South Dakota now living in Glendale are interested in the arrival in Los Angeles Saturday of a whole "car load" of land seekers from Aberdeen, S. D., coming to the southland to make their homes here.

The party chartered a car to make the trip to Los Angeles straight from their home city, the car being connected with the Southern Pacific limited, which arrived in the city from the east Saturday morning.

On arriving in Los Angeles, the home seekers scattered to various sections and, it is expected, many will visit Glendale to see the fastest growing city in the United States.

Republican Meeting

Members of the Glendale Republican club will hold a meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the residence of J. H. Braly, 505 North Brand boulevard, for the purpose of considering the selection of a candidate to congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman-elect Van de Water. W. E. Evans is president of the local club and Mrs. E. W. Hayward is secretary. Among the executive committee are Judge F. H. Lowe, John MacGregor, Mrs. Mable L. Light, Cora Hickman, S. Littleman, Albert Pierce, A. T. Cowan, C. F. Parker, J. C. Sherer, J. H. Franklin, Lillian Dow and W. E. Hewitt.

W. E. Evans, city attorney of Glendale, is being urged to announce his candidacy for the congressional office. His many friends in this city and the district point out that he is well fitted to represent the ninth district and they are urging him to permit his name to be used before the district gathering in Pasadena, where the nominee will be chosen.

BUT WHAT'S A CHAPPED KNEE?

SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—Wintry breezes and chapped knees cause no fears on the part of the co-eds of Drury college, although they are exposed to 'em. They have adopted a fad of wearing golf stockings during the winter months instead of the lengthy woolen stockings or silk coverings.

A fair undergraduate started the fad and it has gained numerous supporters. The golf socks are form-fitting and don't need support. The girls like the socks, they say, because they are easily "ditched," or rolled down below the knee.

LOCAL BOARD IS IN STATE BODY

REALTY ASSOCIATION DECIDES TO BECOME AFFILIATED WITH ORGANIZATION

BUREAU IS SUCCESS

INFORMATION DEPARTMENT IS ANSWERING MANY INQUIRIES
CONCERNING GLENDALE

The Glendale realty board will affiliate with the California Real Estate association. This decision was reached at a meeting of the local board, held on Friday.

With Charles B. Guthrie, president of the local board, presiding, and with E. P. Hayward acting as secretary, the members of the board assembled to hear Mr. Westland of Los Angeles, representing the California Real Estate association, present the merits of that organization.

As a result of his remarks, the Glendale board voted to become affiliated with the state organization, a resolution to that effect being unanimously adopted.

Mr. Westland also invited the local board to have representation at the state organization's convention, to be held at Hotel Alexandria, in Los Angeles, December 9, 10 and 11. Mr. Guthrie was authorized to attend.

Information Bureau Success
The information bureau established by the local board in the First National bank, with Miss Halvorson in charge, has proven such a complete success and of such benefit to Glendale generally, that it was decided to make the bureau a permanent institution and to retain Miss Halvorson on a salary.

The board, however, has not the necessary funds to maintain the bureau and so named C. L. Chandler as a committee of one to revise a way to finance it.

The report of the bureau showed that a large number of inquiries concerning Glendale had been answered during the past month and, too, other work for the general benefit of the city done by the bureau.

It is pointed out that, with a large number of tourists and others coming to Glendale, a bureau of information is an absolute necessity and worthy of the support of the whole community.

EXPECTED HERE

J. B. TABOUR TO ARRIVE HERE
FROM MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.;
LIKES BOOSTER SPIRIT

J. B. Tabour of Minneapolis, Minn., is expected to arrive in Glendale tonight and his home at 1315 North Louise street is in readiness for him.

In writing to The Evening News to order the paper changed to his Glendale address, Mr. Tabour states: "We expect to arrive in Glendale December 6 and we don't want to miss any of the copies, for we have read your paper, we think, with as much interest as we have read our own papers in Minneapolis. We wish our home papers were as wonderful boosters for Minneapolis as your publication is for Glendale and California."

SUPERVISORS

COUNTY BOARD MEETS TODAY TO ORGANIZE; DODGE WILL BE CHAIRMAN, REPORT

The board of supervisors of Los Angeles county is being reorganized today, with Supervisors Dodge, Bean and McClellan, re-elected to office, again taking their seats for the new term.

Supervisor Dodge, representing the district of which the city of Glendale is a part, has been chairman of the board and, it is predicted, he will be re-elected to that position at today's session.

There may be some question later of Supervisor Bean's seat, as it is contested for by G. W. Lyons, defeated on the face of official returns. A recount of the vote will be held before Superior Judge Monroe within two weeks. The election returns show that Bean won by about 400 votes.

ON ATONEMENT

REV. W. E. EDMONDS SPEAKS AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ON TEXT IN ROMANS 5:11

Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the Presbyterian church, spoke Sunday morning on the text from Romans 5:11: "We also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement."

During the course of his sermon, Rev. Edmonds gave expression to the following thoughts:

It is well for us to look into the great doctrines. The word "atonement" is very familiar. The doctrine is the great sun, the center around which is ordered all truth in the bible. The man who looks into the bible and does not see it is blinded. Look in the old testament and see atonement all through. Every thing centers in John's words upon seeing Jesus, "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." As we approach the subject, the fact of sin stares us in the face, also the fact that Christ died for our sins.

God said "Let us make man." But before that something else had transpired: the plan of the atonement had been made. God, foreseeing man's fall into sin, could have made other plans. But no; He stands as waiting to make reconciliation.—an act of sovereign grace, undeserved, unsought, unexampled, unexpected.

Belief in an atonement for man has been held by the whole christian world. A "creed" is simply that which is believed. It is good to be anchored to definitely expressed creeds. There can be no church worthy to stand except upon "the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world."

We come down to the accomplished, finished work of the love of God.
If you base your faith on that, you are safe. On the basis of this finished work God is dealing with men today. One must be very sure about this subject. A man said, "If this doctrine of eternal life is in this book, I propose to find it." He began at the beginning; he could not see it, but when he came to Isaiah 53:5, "By his stripes we are healed," he cried out, "There, I have it! I am healed." It is possible for you to have that experience. Jesus literally died in your stead; He took your sins.

Again, we see the atonement is complete, a finished work, hence there are no steps in salvation. In other things there are steps, and many ways; but salvation,—you have it or you do not have it. If one has it, he has it all. The little child who has just trusted is as secure as the wisest. There are differences of talents, but no differences of salvation. You are wholly saved the moment your name is written in the Lamb's book of life. Stand on these facts in utter security; and your heart can leap for joy!

There are those who impeach the atonement. They say it allows license to do as one pleases. If you look at Christ on the cross, do you please to spit on Him? One who has accepted Christ wants only to honor and love Him.

It is because people abuse the atonement that God had to make hell; for such there can be no hope of eternal life; they are already under condemnation. The reservoir of God's love is full, but it is efficient

only for those who accept.

"The veteran missionary Young, of Alaska," records this: Two Indian tribes were long at war. Finally one chief saw the uselessness of it, and decided to attempt a truce. He met the other chief, who proved deaf to his reasoning. "Well, then, I am worth ten of your men; shoot me." It was done. He gave his life to procure peace. Christ gave His life to make peace between us and God.

prohibition less stringent.

A bill to make the Volstead law more stringent, and to give the prohibition commissioner a bigger force, more money and wider powers.

A demand for a sweeping investigation of prohibition enforcement.

Some measure of tax revision, although the main program of tax and tariff revision is to be undertaken at the next session, according to present plans of Republican leaders.

A soldier bonus bill.

Measures to lower the cost of living.

Proposed amendments of the railroad law.

Plan Treaty with Japan

A treaty with Japan covering land ownership by Japanese in California and other states.

A treaty with Colombia, settling the old controversy over the Panama canal and establishing American oil interests in Colombia.

Measures to improve housing conditions.

Proposals to curb the power of grain exchanges to control the price of wheat and other grains.

A large number of welfare measures.

In addition, some new investigations doubtless will be undertaken.

The senate campaign fund investigating committee is expected to make a partial report, and will also continue its inquiry. Having asked how candidates and parties raised the money, the committee now will ask how they spent it. A final report may also be made on the Newberry election case.

A certain territory on the coast of Peru has been set aside by the gov-

New York police have been assigned to stop motor vehicles on the streets and examine them, sending those in need of repairs to a garage and giving certificates of good condition to the others.

God's love is full, but it is efficient
only for those who accept.

"The veteran missionary Young, of Alaska," records this: Two Indian tribes were long at war. Finally one chief saw the uselessness of it, and decided to attempt a truce. He met
the other chief, who proved deaf to his reasoning. "Well, then, I am
worth ten of your men; shoot me." It was done. He gave his life to procure peace. Christ gave His life to make peace between us and God.

U. S. NAVY DEPARTMENT WILL SHOW ONE REEL PICTURE HERE ON WEDNESDAY

The United States navy recruiting service, through the courtesy of the management of the Palace Grand Theatre, will, on Wednesday, December 8, show a one-reel navy feature film at that theatre.

The picture deals with the super-dreadnaught California, now being completed at Mare Island navy yard. The California will be the most modern and powerful war vessel afloat and the final word in naval architecture.

The new ship is to be manned by Californians and one of the purposes of the picture is to arouse interest of the youth of the state in hope that a prompt response will be made to the call for recruits. The California will be the flagship of the Pacific fleet.

ELKS' SERVICE

IMPRESSIVE LODGE OF SORROW IS HELD SUNDAY NIGHT BY LOCAL ORGANIZATION

orator, all over the land at this service all those who have crossed the threshold of this order live on in the memory of their comrades. He cited the great names of the world from the days of Demosthenes, Socrates, Michael Angelo, St. Thomas, Milton and Shakespeare to the present day, saying that all that live must share their destiny, yet all live in the triumph of love and faith over so-called death.

Mr. Brown said this was not a lodge of exaltation, nor yet a lodge of exaltation, but a communion of souls, a commemoration of the virtues of the dead in order that we, the living, may be inspired to cultivate their example of following the cardinal principles of charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity. It was not an occasion of exaltation, nor yet of sorrow; yet human hearts have passed on, refrain from a feeling of yearning that resembles sadness only as the mist resembles rain.

Solon, he said, forbade the Athenians to speak ill of the dead; and the Elks have reversed Mark Anthony's "The evil that men do lives after them, the good is oft interred with their bones"—they write the faults of their brothers upon the sands, their virtues on the tablets of love and memory. He quoted that beautiful passage from Whittier beginning "Alas for him who never sees the stars shine through his cypress trees," and ended with Bryant's noble

"So live, that when thy summons comes To join the innumerable caravan Where each shall take his place In the silent halls of death, Thou go not, like the quarry slave at night, Scourged to his dungeon, But sustained and soothed By an unfaltering trust Approach the grave Like one who wraps the drapery Of his couch about him And lies down to pleasant dreams."

Shubert's "Ave Maria" was sung in a manner befitting that beautiful prayer, by Mrs. Custer; the Gamut Club quartette was heard once more in "Now the Day Is Over," which, being sung without accompaniment, brought out to the full the wonderful perfection of their ensemble work; the audience sang "Auld Lang Syne" and "The Star Spangled Banner," and then Chaplain McBryde dismissed the assembly, the orchestra playing Gounod's "Marche Pontificale" as the audience departed.

The wonderful flag of our country made in flowers of California was the artistic handiwork of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Chobe. It contained 1600 red and white carnations, and the field of blue was composed of violets. The gold stars for the Elks who had made the supreme sacrifice were electrically lighted.

J. C. SHERER WRITES LETTER IN REFERENCE TO APPEAL OF HERBERT HOOVER

The Evening News is in receipt of the following self-explanatory communication from J. C. Sherer:

Editor The Evening News:—I wonder how many of the readers of The Evening News have read Herbert Hoover's article in the Saturday Evening Post of November 20 in regard to the great work that is being done by him and his associates in the unfortunate famine-stricken countries of Central Europe? A personal of that very interesting story cannot fail to remind us that war conditions have not passed for those countries less fortunately situated than the United States. There are three and a half millions of little children over there, still dependent on the people of this country for their lives; dependent upon us because there is no other nation in the world today that has the power to succor them, as they need those necessities of life which we alone, the most highly-favored nation in the world, have the ability to supply!

These children will be saved; it is only necessary that their sad plight be made known over here to assure a prompt and liberal response to the plea that Mr. Hoover makes. And he gives assurance also that every dollar will go direct to the needy ones, without being consumed in "overhead" expense which so often happens to many well-meant attempts in similar directions. Mr. Hoover wishes it clearly understood that the people over there are not idly waiting to have their children fed by a sympathizing world, but are in a very noble manner doing everything in their power to help themselves, the very large majority of the relief workers doing the most of the relief work under the direction of some forty Americans being natives of the localities in which the money is expended.

Here is a cause that ought to appeal to every American citizen to open his purse and part with at least a small portion of that which he calls his own, of the good things of the world, that the lives of little children in other lands may be saved to build up the things which war has pulled down. Contributions may be sent direct to American Relief Administration, 42 Broadway, New York.
